Letter From the President and Tour of Kitchens Chair

Dear Friends and Patrons,

Welcome! The Junior League of Atlanta, Inc. (JLA) is delighted to present the 21st Annual Tour of Kitchens. Not only is this Atlanta springtime tradition a showcase of some of the region's most esteemed design talents and beautiful homes, but it's also an opportunity to promote the Junior League of Atlanta, Inc.'s mission of promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women, and improving our community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. We are proud that over two decades, Tour of Kitchens has raised more than two million dollars to advance the JLA mission.

As we celebrate 21 memorable years of the Tour of Kitchens, we would like to express our sincere gratitude for the generous support of our guest kitchen designers for sharing their talents, our homeowners for welcoming tour patrons, our invaluable partners and sponsors, dedicated donors, volunteers, and Tour attendees. We also extend a special thank you to Atlanta Homes & Lifestyles Magazine and Brad Hanner, without whom this beloved springtime tradition would not be possible.

We are thrilled to have you as a guest at the 2018 Junior League of Atlanta Tour of Kitchens. To officially kick off the 2018 Tour, hundreds of guests attended Pour Before the Tour on January 16, 2018. Thanks to the generosity of our host sponsor, Daltile, guests met designers and homeowners in anticipation of the Tour, and the event was a resounding success. Toast of the Tour, our annual cocktail celebration, will launch the Tour of Kitchens weekend on Thursday, March 22, 2018. This opening weekend cocktail event is sponsored and graciously hosted by Guy Gunter Home.

As you take the two-day, self-guided Tour of Kitchens on March 24 & 25, 2018, through 14 of our city's most stunning homes, we encourage you to take inspiration and immerse yourself in the creativity and innovation of the Atlanta design community. Each home is a showcase of the best and most innovative design in our city. During the weekend, don't miss out on the special culinary and event demonstrations, tastings, and more at our homes and please share your experiences on social media during the weekend by using #JLATOK.

Throughout the years, our organization has harnessed the potential of Atlanta women to take the lead in an ever-evolving world and create a healthy community for all children, women, and families. In our 101 years, the Junior League of Atlanta has served as the premier source for civic leadership training and development opportunities for women who want to bring about lasting and meaningful change in their community. Our 3,500 members are a relevant and modern movement of women who are at the forefront of tackling the thorniest and most pressing issues affecting women and children - acting as advocates on human trafficking, education, and poverty.

Your patronage of Tour of Kitchens enables our organization to empower the potential of Atlanta women to take the lead and deliver transformational community change. We look forward to seeing you on this year's Tour!

Warmly,

BATDORF & BRONSON COFFEE ROASTERS

Ren Doughty has been active in the specialty coffee world for 18 years. He's the Outreach & Customer Support Coordinator for Batdorf & Bronson Coffee Roasters, and he can't imagine working for anyone else. Batdorf & Bronson has been sourcing and roasting some of the world's best specialty coffee right here in Atlanta for more than 20 years. Many of Atlanta's favorite restaurants and cafes serve Batdorf. When he's not hanging out with his wife Julia and their three children, you'll find Ren leading tours of their roastery, serving fresh coffee at art events around town, judging local latte art competitions, or riding his motorcycle to a good bookstore.

CHARLES WILLIS

An Atlanta institution since 1948, Charles Willis has proudly served three generations of brides with its fine china, crystal, invitations, and gifts. Charles Willis offers over 400 china patterns from the finest manufacturers in the world, assuring that today's brides will find the perfect pattern. Its bridal registry has expanded nationwide via its website, www.charleswillis.com. Visit Charles Willis in the heart of Buckhead at 465 East Paces Ferry Road or call 404-233-9487.

DOGGY DOGG

Once upon a time in Bavaria, the German landscape was covered in snow and fog. As mist loomed through the air, James, the Dogfather, exited a Christmas mass towards the town square. As he passed through, he noticed a gentleman set up with a cart selling tasty sausages on crusty bread with mustard. From there, the inspiration was born. Four years later, Doggy Dogg took the next step from the hot dog cart to a take away/late night window shop in Decatur. The same passion and local emphasis on food philosophy applies, but with a renewed focus on the dogs.

ECLIPSE DI LUNA

Eclipse di Luna Restaurant and Tapas Bar, Atlanta's original tapas concept, was founded in Buckhead by chefs Paul Luna and James Ehrlich in 1997. Now with an additional location in Dunwoody, both kitchens serve up a unique array of small plates amongst the restaurant's lively and authentic atmosphere. Over the years, Eclipse di Luna has received praise from local publications and was named "Best Tapas Restaurant" in Atlanta by Creative Loafing and Atlanta Journal-Constitution. The Buckhead location is open on Monday and Tuesday from 11:30 a.m. to 10 p.m., Wednesday and Thursday from 11:30 a.m. to 11 p.m., Friday and Saturday from 11:30 a.m. to midnight, and Sunday from 4 to 10 p.m. For more information, visit www.eclipsediluna.com.

FLWR CREATIONS

Kimie and Marc have collectively been professionally cooking for over 24 years. Marc obtained formal training at L'Academie de Cuisine, in Gaithersburg, MD. Kimie, Japanese-American, born and raised on the Big Island of Hawaii, has been passionately exploring her culinary cultural roots. Together, they mash up the best of traditional French and Italian dishes with Asian infused flavors and Hawaiian inspired techniques.

They offer the best of culinary entertainment at clients' in-home dinner parties and corporate events as well as intricately detailed cookie decorations and baked goods arrangements. They also take their culinary skills overseas where they facilitate cooking classes for corporate leadership development trainings in the Tuscan mountains, an hour north of Florence, Italy.

Teresa Dothard, food blogger from Culinary Local had this to say: "If you're looking for a diversion from the ordinary, let Chef's Marc and Kimie's Hawaiian-Asian Fusion cuisine whisk you away."

JLA COOKBOOKS

Junior League cookbooks are full of regional, tried-and-true recipes that are fast and easy to serve your family and friends. In addition to The Junior League of Atlanta, Inc.'s cookbook, True Grits, the Cookbooks Committee stocks a wide variety of "swap" books, or cookbooks from other Leagues around the country. Also, all cookbook purchases have a direct impact on the community! An average cookbook costs $25, which could buy or fund four meals for a family staying at Atlanta Ronald McDonald House Charities, five books for a child in need, or six baby blankets for infants at Grady.

ABOUT THE KITCHEN

This posh high-rise was the ideal choice, but homeowner Stephen Wells knew the kitchen wasn't right. He returned to kitchen designer Matthew Rao, with whom he had worked on the transformation of a single-family home. Stephen wanted a minimal look to showcase his vibrant art and city views. The kitchen is stunning, minimal, functional, and social.

Matthew identified the kitchen's problems: traditional design, appliance clutter, no pantry, and misplaced cooktop. Matthew brought induction cooking to the island and left a simple wall of tall cabinets behind it, which houses the appliances, dishes, and pantries. Glossy graphite gray SieMatic Cabinetry reflects the skyline and is accentuated by bronze metal drawers along the back of the island. Refrigeration disappears behind this glossy canvas, and side by side ovens are both at eye level.

Ideal for both the kitchen and art gallery, a custom-designed linear LED track system allows different light types and individual control.

ABOUT THE KITCHEN

Our clients wanted to remake their 100-year-old bungalow into a home for their 21st century family which would include room for two growing boys and space for the family to entertain and enjoy time together. We began by removing the main walls on the ground floor to create an open kitchen with wonderful views to the family room and dining room. What was once a floor of small, isolated rooms, is now open, sunny, and inviting! The kitchen has all the amenities to enjoy cooking and great flow to enjoy having guests.

We went on to add a new second floor which created private space for the family including 3 bedrooms, 2 baths, a laundry room, and plenty of storage space. At the same time, we renovated the basement for guests and play space.

Their newly renovated home is the perfect place for the family to grow and make memories for the future.

ABOUT THE KITCHEN

This newly constructed home features a kitchen with a clean and contemporary design that feels open and modern. Bright white cabinets line the back wall, rising to the ceiling with simple, minimalist lines. A modern window serves as the backsplash and admits great light to the space. A tall double oven on one side balances a paneled refrigerator and pantry on the opposite side. Base cabinets and a spacious island finished in dark oak contrast the paneled refrigerator and pantry. Alabama white marble countertops unify the space and continue the modern feel. An adjoining open pantry adds additional welcome storage. This new kitchen provides a perfect space for family dinners and a great spot for entertaining.

ABOUT THE KITCHEN

The homeowners have a lovely Morningside home and wanted a kitchen that could accommodate their large family and frequent entertaining. Seeking more storage, better accessories, and an improved workflow, they still hoped for a beautiful remodel that would reflect their style and taste.

To create a show-stopping kitchen, Cardea Home teamed up with Jessica Bradley Interiors and Dan Mattox of Builders II. Together, they blended the kitchen with the tone of the adjacent rooms designed by Jessica Bradley Interiors. Revised architecture and a more creative use of the given space allowed for a larger kitchen, a new walk-in pantry, and a new coffee bar, all while maintaining the mud room entry and butler's pantry. The result is a harmonious update on the previous space.

ABOUT THE DESIGNER

Cardea Home is a full-service kitchen and bath studio. Launched in 2016 by Laurie Lehrich, Cardea Home brings 24 years of experience into an approachable and intimate setting.

Laurie has a singular skill for infusing real, emotional resonance into living spaces by balancing inspired design with practical functionality. She credits her unique approach to her invaluable experience in residential construction, her product design education, and her tenure with some of the best designers and trade professionals in the industry.

ABOUT THE KITCHEN

This 1920's home is located in Atlanta's Morningside neighborhood. For this renovation, we maximized the space by swapping the location of the kitchen and dining room. The kitchen is now located in the original dining room while the bar area and new dining space is in the previous galley kitchen. Working with the client's interior designer, Brian Watford, the idea was to keep the quaint style of the 1920's-style home, but open the two spaces up to create a more dynamic space for entertaining.

ABOUT THE KITCHEN

Built in 1925, this home in historic Druid Hills had great bones and many original features, but the disjointed 1970s kitchen had no room for an island and was not suited for entertaining. HammerSmith and Dove Studios collaborated to bring new life to the heart of this home. By relocating the powder room and a poorly designed closet, we were able to create a walk-in pantry that also hides their small appliances, plugged in and ready for use.

We created a mudroom area that includes a pet station for housing the leash, dog food and other pet needs. They got the large island that they always wanted, with three stools for their three girls. But best of all, for the first time they were able to host their extended families for Thanksgiving dinner--and they are all planning to come back next year.

ABOUT THE DESIGNER

At HammerSmith, design is not about products, but rather how you live. Experience our holistic approach to creating your own personal sanctuary and discover an intentional lifestyle that focuses on what is important to you.

For 26 years Warner McConaughey, founder and president, has been a leader in the industry and has assured HammerSmith delivers exceptional client care. We were named ADAC's Designer of the Year and have been featured in hundreds of publications. HammerSmith has been a proud participant of the kitchen tour since its inception. ABOUT THE KITCHEN

These homeowners were preparing to throw a grand birthday party with a prohibition theme because their home was built in that era. With that date quickly approaching, they realized they needed a few updates. The kitchen was dark and cluttered and didn't lend itself to entertaining or to the busy lifestyle of this active family with five kids!

Dove Studios and HammerSmith, Inc joined forces to create this dynamic kitchen. We began by converting a hallway into two very specific spaces-one for a mudroom and one for a scullery kitchen for food prep, housing small appliances, and a second sink and dishwasher. We then opened up the rest of the space and lifted the lowered ceiling to create a large open area for cooking, eating, and entertaining. Complete with professional appliances and an array of colors and textures, we created the perfect kitchen for them.

In less than 90 days, we went from dark and cluttered to light, bright, and wow! The family is thoroughly enjoying their new open space and the unveiling of the new kitchen at the party was a huge success, too!

KING OF POPS

Summertime, smiles, and Southern culture on a stick -- we're King of Pops. Founded in 2010, we exist to create unexpected moments of happiness. Boasting flavors like Chocolate Sea Salt, Raspberry Lime, Banana Puddin', and Pineapple Habanero, our team of 100 or so passionate people is empowered and excited to thoughtfully do what it takes to make any experience special. We scour the South for sustainable fruits and sourceable farmers for our five locally-focused kitchens. Inspired by two brothers who started with a single pushcart on a street corner in Atlanta, we chop, mash, freeze, and ship thousands of artisanal popsicles a day. Today we're a lot bigger but not different. Check out our free weekly yoga classes that draw hundreds, drop by one of our carts, suggest our 500th flavor, or bring us to your next event. www.KingofPops.com

LASHEEDA PERRY, EXECUTIVE PASTRY CHEF AT THE FOUR SEASONS HOTEL ATLANTA

Lasheeda Perry has always had a passion for culinary arts and, luckily for her, this love has materialized into a rewarding and 'sweet' career. A creative force in the kitchen, Perry leads the pastry team at Four Seasons Hotel Atlanta and oversees the hotel's two dining outlets, all banquets and private events, weddings, room service, chef tastings, and off-site events. Her outstanding scholastic achievement and culinary skills earned her a four-year full tuition scholarship to attend Johnson & Wales University. Perry has received numerous awards and accolades during her career. In 2012, she won season two of Food Network's Sweet Genius after proving her skills by overcoming tight time constraints, masterfully incorporating secret ingredients, and accommodating larger-than-life requests. When not in the kitchen, you can find Perry mentoring elementary school students and volunteering with Girls, Inc.

LENOX CUPCAKES

Lenox Cupcakes was founded with a deep and abiding love for cupcakes. The company began its initial operations in 2008 from a home kitchen (on Lenox Road, hence the name) and shortly thereafter, a commercial kitchen. Since then, we have settled into our licensed bakery in Chamblee's Antique Row. We are proud to have a loyal fan base as well as corporate clients, including AT&T, Coca-Cola, CNN, Google, Microsoft, Saks Fifth Avenue, and Wells Fargo.

Our gourmet cupcakes are baked in small batches using the finest ingredients: Valrhona cocoa powder, Callebaut chocolate, pure Madagascar bourbon vanilla, European sweet cream butter, and gourmet chocolate decorations. To ensure the freshest taste, our products are baked fresh daily, using locally sourced dairy and produce. Each item is lovingly handcrafted from scratch, using family recipes, and contains no preservatives or trans fats.

LOVIES

In the hustle and bustle of Buckhead – better known for corporate headquarters and luxury shopping – LOVIES is an unexpected, down-to-earth comfort food spot that celebrates contentment, convenience, and community. With roots firmly planted in Atlanta, LOVIES is a dream come true for friends Nate, Drew, and Kay, who developed the concept with hopes of providing the greater Atlanta community with the same good fun and great food their friends and family had come to expect from them at tailgates and other intimate gatherings over the years. Serving a hearty helping of hospitality and value, LOVIES turns quality, simple ingredients into dishes that taste like home.

PIASTRA

Originally from Boston, Chef Greg learned about food at a young age when he first learned the phrase, "food is love." His first culinary steps were what captured his passion when his Grandmother Rose showed him how to make chocolate chip cookies, and he is still perfecting the recipe. After training at New England Culinary Institute in Montpelier, Vermont, he worked in different restaurants in the Boston area.

Around age thirty, Chef Greg trained with a classically trained French chef on a small yacht while sailing over a third of the way around the world. Shortly after the trip, Chef Greg moved to Atlanta and began working at Maxim Prime at the Glenn Hotel in downtown Atlanta. He then worked as the Chef at Alon's Bakery and Market. After Alon's, Chef Greg was Executive Chef at Dal Cuore in Johns Creek when he married his wife, Maggie. Just before opening Piastra, their first daughter was born and shortly after opening, their second daughter came along.

Southern Crust is flexible, full-service, and fun -- a great partner for your next event.

SOUTH CITY KITCHEN

Located in Vinings' Ivy Walk development, South City Kitchen Vinings is the second of four locations of this sophisticated Southern dining concept from Fifth Group Restaurants. Featuring a warm yet cosmopolitan setting and new South cuisine, the restaurant is an ideal gathering spot for neighbors and travelers alike.

A part of the Fifth Group Restaurants family since 2012, Jack McGinn brings two decades of industry experience to South City Kitchen Vinings, where he puts a creative spin on seasonal dishes and special menus like TomatoJam and Hogtoberfest, as well as the restaurant's sophisticated southern classics.

McGinn's interest in all things culinary was born at his first job as a dishwasher at the age of 14. He was enamored with the pace, culture, and people of the restaurant industry and knew he wanted to make cooking a career. Honing his craft in the kitchen in the years since, McGinn has worked in a number of esteemed Atlanta restaurants in various capacities, having most recently served as executive chef at Fifth Group Restaurants' Virginia-Highland mainstay, The Original El Taco.

ABOUT THE KITCHEN

The homeowners wanted to remodel their kitchen to make it more functional and liveable and to incorporate new appliances. The kitchen lacked sufficient counterspace to work comfortably and lacked enough seating to accommodate family and guests. The space was large, but underutilized. We built a coffered ceiling to add architectural detail and painted it the same color as the cabinets to keep it light. Rutt HandCrafted Cabinetry was chosen for the foundation of the kitchen for its quality, beauty, and versatility. The cabinetry utilizes inset construction and features walnut drawer boxes and custom drawer accessories by Rutt. The finish is Decorator's White. Glass cabinets include interior lighting from Rutt. The large island makes better use of the space while still leaving room for a large farm-style table with plenty of seating. Gourmet appliances by Sub-Zero, Wolf, and Miele were chosen for their performance features, reliability, and appearance. Elegant countertops of Caesarstone in Statuario Maximus give the luxurious look of marble without the maintenance worries, and a bar top in walnut by Grothouse provides a nice contrast.

ABOUT THE KITCHEN

The homeowners wanted an updated, gorgeous kitchen and an area that could be used as a multi-purpose space. An unused and oddly placed bedroom beside the kitchen was absorbed into the design to create a scullery kitchen and pantry. It also has a craft area for their two small boys, a food pantry, and a dog feeding area tucked in a bottom drawer. In addition, the main kitchen has all of the gorgeous, classic features that the homeowner wanted, such as marble and a farm sink.

ABOUT THE KITCHEN

Our kitchen design for this home began the first phase of a project to transform the home from a mid-century brick ranch to a sleek, modern home for a young, growing family. The owners, both accomplished chefs, had a vision of blending Asian influences with modern design and fine craftsmanship. Working with Timothy Hagan, of Hagan Architects, we forged a collaborative team that brought that inspired vision to life.

We imagined a massive window where the entirety of the window could be pocketed into the side wall, directly connecting to the new backyard living spaces, as the boundaries of interior and exterior space begin to be erased. The window also allows a tremendous amount of natural light to flood the kitchen. There are many custom touches throughout the kitchen. The honed granite-clad island provides an expansive work area packed with function and also serves as a welcoming area for guests to gather. The sleek, custom cabinets subtly conceal a tremendous amount of storage, and the clever wood dish drying rack behind the sink adds a special, unique touch.

ABOUT THE DESIGNER

ABOUT THE KITCHEN

Set in a traditional Brookhaven home the original kitchen was dominated by a large peninsula bar and disconnected from the rest of the house. It was awkwardly laid out and not very functional for the homeowners who love to cook, sip wine and interact with each other while preparing meals. The Goal was to create a larger, better organized kitchen that would function as the nucleus of the entire house. Beyond functionality we wanted to transform this into the kitchen of our client's dreams. This required blending romance, luxury and hand-crafted elegance with a dramatic Italian flair

Attention to detail was key from the hand-hewn beams to the color matched hand plated finish on the cabinet hardware. Beautiful white marble countertops, custom cabinetry and bold black and gray tile backsplash are the perfect setting for the jewel of the kitchen, the Bertazzoni range.

Opening the kitchen to the living spaces as well as to a porch addition provided the ideal space for the homeowners to entertain, relax and enjoy.

ABOUT THE KITCHEN

For this project, Mast Cabinetry worked with Rocco Sinisgalli, owner of Oneida Builders, Inc., North Atlanta's design-build firm specializing in the eight-week kitchen. Mast and Oneida started from the homeowners' desire to turn the original, dark Dunwoody home into a light, open floor plan with the feel of an East Coast ocean home. Oneida Builders removed all of the interior walls to achieve the open concept, and concealed beams now replace the old walls between the kitchen, dining room, and den, bringing all three rooms together. The main part of the kitchen has an island large enough to cook and entertain with black honed granite countertops and lots of large drawers for storage. White maple cabinets with glass doors were installed in the galley section of the kitchen along with soapstone countertops, chrome hardware, and a bead board backsplash painted to match the island.

ABOUT THE DESIGNER

Mast Custom Cabinets is a local, third-generation Amish Heritage family-owned and operated company specializing in custom and semi-custom-built cabinetry and countertops. Owner and founder Willis Mast and his sons take pride in the workmanship and personal customer service from conception to install in just four weeks while working with builders, remodelers, and designers in the Southern region. ABOUT THE KITCHEN

The kitchen was designed for aesthetics as well as function. The homeowner/designer is an avid cook and entertainer and created a space that was functional yet creates a welcoming place for people to gather. Karpaty's cabinet design and selection of wood was an integral part of creating this space. The sleek style with the integration of the matt gray/brown oak with the flush white bronze hardware paired with the statuarietto marble and Waterworks porcelain floor creates a modern yet inviting home. The Caste light over the island is the "jewelry" that ties the whole space together.
